1912 Pomona Grange at Hugo Mt. Sexton Grange of Hugo will entertain the next meeting of Pomona Grange, which occurs on Saturday, September 7. Members are looking forward to a good meeting. Rogue River Courier. August 30, 1912. School House Nearing Completion; Pomona Grange at Hugo.

Hugo Grange Hall — The Hugo school district is constructing a modern school building to replace the old one, which was sold to the Hugo Grange. The Grange is remodeling the old structure, building on a kitchen, and making other alterations that will create from it a meeting place not only for sessions of the Grange, but for all social gathering as well. Rogue River Courier. September 13, 1912. Hugo Grange Hall.

The Pomona Grange at Hugo yesterday took up the question of a selling agency or organization for the disposal of the surplus product of the farm. An organization built on the lines advanced by Mr. Honner in Thursday's Courier will be brought about, and while it is expected to have it fostered by the Grange, others than Grange members will not be excluded from its benefits. A meeting of all who are interested in the subject will be called for some day during the coming fair when plans for the formation of the project will be made. Rogue River Courier. Hugo Neighborhood Association & Historical Society's Mission

This information brochure is one of a series of documents published by the Hugo Neighborhood Association & Historical Society (Hugo Neighborhood). It is designed to be shared with neighbors for the purpose of helping protect our rural quality of life by promoting an informed citizenry in decision-making. The Hugo Neighborhood is an informal nonprofit charitable and educational organization with a land use and history mission of promoting the social welfare of its neighbors.

Land Use & History

The Hugo Neighborhood's land use mission is to promote Oregon Statewide Goal 1 — Citizen Involvement, and to preserve, protect, and enhance the livability and economic viability of its farms, forests, and rural neighbors. It will act, if requested, as a technical resource assisting neighbors to represent themselves.

Its history mission is to educate, collect, preserve, interpret, and research its local history and to encourage public interest in the history of the Hugo area.

Volunteer membership dues are $10.00 annually per family and normally used for paper, ink, envelopes, publications and mailings. Send us your e-mail address if you want to know what we are doing.
